Facebook acquires biometric ID verification startup Confirm.io

Posted Jan 23, 2018 by Josh Constance (@joshconstance)

Next Story

Facebook has confirmed to TechCrunch that it's acquired... Confirm.io. The startup offered an API that let other companies quickly verify someone's government-issued identification card, like a driver's license, was authentic. The Boston-based startup will shut down as both its team and technology are rolled into Facebook, where it could help users who are locked
